Terrell McCord, manager of a rising singing group, has finally begun to get his life back to normal after the ending of his marriage to a Texas debutante from Houston. He vowed to concentrate on the group and not become involved with another female—that is, until he literally ran into a willowy blonde by the name of Taylor Renee Ryan, who had places to go, things to do and people to see. She had aspirations of becoming an investigative reporter for a large newspaper in Dallas. Once she heard him play and saw his compassion for a friend, she was hooked. How would they work out a relationship when he traveled with the group 10 months out of the year?
